THE INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND.

The twenty-ninth annual report of the Board of Trustees of the Wisconsin Institute for the Education of the Blind, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1878, has been received. At the date of the report there were 89 pupils in the Institution. The finances have been managed, as the official report will show, with wise economy, keeping in mind the object for which the Institution is intended. The Trustees say "they are glad to report that the new building meets fully the expectations of the Board, being substantially built, and well adapted to all the requirements of the Institution. The interior walls of the halls of the building have never been furnished, it having been thought best to leave them until thoroughly dried. We think it very desirable that this work be done during the next year, and we have included in the table of estimates, under the head of permanent improvements, the amount thought necessary for the purpose." The total expenditures for the year have been $18,058. The estimate for the ensuing year have been placed at $19,000, which seems to be a very moderate sum, considering the amount of work the Institution is doing.

The report of the very efficient Superintendent, Mrs Thomas H. Little, shows that the work of the Institute has gone steadily forward. Ninety persons, 43 males and 47 females, have received instruction during the year. The average number present for the fiscal year, is 79. During the last term the number of pupils having instruction or practice in the several branches, was divided up as follows, which shows how varied and practical are the studies: In reading 55; spelling, 58; arithmetic, 72; geography, 51; grammar, 26; physiology 21; English literature, 13; kindergarten, 13; vocal muic, 65; orchestral, 13; piano, 35; organ, 16; violin, 11; broom-making, 26; caning chair-seats, 33; bead work, 36; hand-knitting, 23; machine-knitting, 4; hand sewing, 23; crocheting and other fancy work, 18. A close examination of the report, and a visit to the Institution, will convince any observing persons, that the Instution for the Education of the Blind, is one of the best managed of our State Institutions.

CARPENTER'S FINANCIAL RECORD.

A short time ago the Evening Wisconsin published communicated article on ex-Senator Carpenter's financial record while in the United States Senate, charging him with being weak on the financial question, also with being anti-Republican, and finally with ante-dating a letter to Mr. Kutchin, of the Fond du Lac Commonwealth, on his attitude toward the Republican party. Mr. Carpenter takes occasion to answer these charges and his letter, a column and a half long, appred in the Evening Wisconsin of Tuesday, the 31st ult. He takes up the Congressional Record, to prove that he never voted or inflation, repudiation, or against resumption. He voted for the Resumption bill of 1875, and against every amendment to weaken its efficacy. He avers that he was one of the warmest supporters of the measure then, and since that time has not wavered the least in his opinion regarding resumption and a sound currency. A reference to the Record for the session at which the debate on the Resumption bill took place, will show that Mr. Carpenter stly maintained the Republican theory of finance at that time, and in this matter should have justice done him. In his answer to the libelous charges he says:

The bill providing "resumption and a return to a redeemable paper currency," or, in other words, specie payments was passed in the Senate December 22d, 1. Whoever will turn to the Congressional Record, vol. 3, part 1, pp. 188—208, will find that I voted against every amendment offered to the bill, and for the bill on its final passage.

As to the charge that he was not thoroughly Republican, that while he supported a few of the principles of the party, he was not in sympathy with the party on all questions of public policy, he says:

On the 6th of August, five days after my letter to Mr. Kutchin, I authorized the publication in the Chicago Tribune of an interview of the Washington correspondent with me, in which I declared myself in full fellowship with the Republican party, its doctrines and its measures. When I said I meant, as I supposed every one would understand, that I was in favor of the principles and measures of the Republican party. I did not deem it necessary to enumerate those measures, but every one well knew that the hard-money theory was one of the cardinal principles of the Republican party. Shortly afterwards in reply to an unfriendly criticism in the Chicago Tribune, I published a letter defying it to point to a single word of mine disloyal to the Republican party since I joined it.

Those who have found fault with Mr. Carpenter's financial record as a Senator, must be convinced by a reference to the Record, that while in the Senate he strongly favored honest money and a speedy return to specie payments.

THE PENSIONS

The Commissioner of Pensions, Hon. J. A. Bentley, formerly of this State, has made his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior. Under the act of March 9th, 1878, there were 18,240 new claims on account of service in the war of 1812. In addition to the 120,387 unsettled claims for pensions, there were on file in the office of the Commissioner about 80,000 claims which had been disallowed. The Commissioner says fully one-fourth of this number will sooner or later be called up and re-opened for further consideration, new and additional testimony, which will swell the number of pending claims to 100,000. The amount appropriated by Congress for the payment of pensions for the last year was $27,850,000, and the amount out reached $26,530,792. During the year there were 11,962 original pensions allowed, 11,226 increased, and 881 restored. The total number of pensioners in the United States on the 30th day of June, 1878, was 223,998, of which 119,000 were invalids, and 86,919 were widows.

The pensioners of the War of 1812, are 14,132, of which 10,407 are survivors, and 3,725 are widows. There are 9,364 pensioners in Wisconsin on account of the War of the Rebellion,—5,625 invalids, and 3,739 widows and children. There are in the State 234 survivors of the War of 1812, and 66 widows. The highest number of pensioners upon the roll at one time was in 1873, when the number reached 238,000.

We presume thousands of New Year's resolutions—first-class resolutions—have been made already. It is easy to make them on the first day of the year. It is a pity they don't stand the test of practical experience. They are made in haste, under the peculiar feeling which New Year's day inspires, but very often they are swept away as though they were gossamer, and which seldom keep till summer. But life is a perpetual succession of falls and failures, which are very susceptible of being partially redeemed by ever recurring regrets and consequent new uprisings of resolve and effort. Those who argue from human weakness against the renewal of these promises and high purposes, are certainly false philosophers and blind guides whose teachings would keep mankind below the plane they now occupy. Life is a constant conflict, and requires constantly new impulses of high sentiment, manly courage and self-renunciation. We can not stand still, we cannot be satisfied with the past, and we can not make over what it has done. It is never too late to mend, nor to use the past to encourage us onward, even to honestly make a good resolution, though we fail to keep it till the year runs out. Without these resolves there would be no achievements, and the resolutions made at the beginning of the year, and which have been so much satirized, have done a power of good though thousands of them have been broken by the weakness of the natural man.

The night before Christmas a fire broke out in one of the largest blocks in South Bend, Indiana. The weather was cold—five degrees below zero—and despite the advantages of an excellent system of water works, the fire spread as it pleased, and did a vast amount of damage. Water froze in the hose, and the hose burst, and fate seemed to set itself against all efforts to subdue the flames. Taking a fire like that when the elements join in a compact with the flames to beat the firemen, all the water-works and engines in Indiana could not break it.

We regret to announce the death of Hon. Charles H. Phillips, State Senator elect, who died suddenly of heart disease, at his residence on New Year's day. Mr. Phillips was elected as a Republican, by a large majority in a strong Democratic county, which is an indication of the high esteem in which he was held. He was a farmer by occupation, was 55 years old, had been in the State 30 years, and had served in the Legislature three years. His sudden death will be deeply lamented. His home was at Lake Mills.

The great third party—a party which never made a mistake—James. R. Doolitle—said last fall that in three weeks after resumption took place, gold would go up, other things would go down, and there would be a general disaster. It will only take three weeks to prove that Doolittle is a false prophet.

The fuss the Democrats started a month ago about Republican bulldozing in the North, seems to be dying out. There is nothing more said about it. Thurman said he could prove it, and if he wants to confer a favor on the Republican party of nation, he wants to come out with it at once.

The New York Tribune asks this very important question: "Suppose Tilden goes upon the stand and proves that he is an innocent, how will that effect his chances for a renomination? Will the party venture to run a man who can be bamboozled by such amateur rogues as Moses and Pelton."

The Legislature meets next Wednesday for a very important session. It now appears that Mr. Kelley will be elected Speaker without much opposition. Mr. Lawrence, of this city, has a good show for an important position in the Assembly.

The funding bonds of four per cent. are still selling rapidly. Already about 190 millions have been sold, and day by day the sales are increasing. This is one of the grand results of the Republican system of finance.

In publishing the list of the newspapers in this State which are working for Mr. Keyes' election to the United States Senate, the State Journal by an inadvertency, omitted the name of the Milwaukee Sentinel.

We publish to-day a very interesting article on Wisconsin railways, which is extracted from a lengthy article that recently appeared in The Appeal, and written by Hon. J. A. Watrous, of Fond du Lac.

It is said that Miss Jennie, daughter of Colonel Charles D. Robinson, of the Green Bay Advocate, is winning considerable of a reputation as a cornet soloist.

The best New Years gift of the age is resumption. It is the gift of the Republican party to the American people.

Tilden is going to swear off—the cipher spatches on to his nephew and Moses.

RESUMPTION.

How it Works in Providence and Philadelphia.

Special to the Gazette.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2—To-day was christened Resumption Day, flags are flying, and much joy prevails in financial circles. Of the $25,000 received at the Custom House at noon, the bulk was greenbacks. There is no excitement. There is $110,000,000 in the sub-treasury. The clerks are disappointed that there is so little demand for gold. There are more greenbacks than gold wanted.

PROVIDEECE, R. I., Jan. 1.—The resumption of specie payments to-day caused not a ripple at the banks nor in financial circles. Very few wanted checks paid in gold, and some of the banks received more gold on deposit than they paid out. In all general business transactions bills were preferred. Even savings banks depositors took their interest in bills rather than gold.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 31—The business of to-morrow will open under the auspices of resumption of specie payment, and the general expression in financial circles is that it will create no disturbance in the ordinary routine of business. The experience of the past ten days, during which time gold has been quoted at par, has given the banks the benefit of an experiment, although the transactions in gold, greenbacks and silver were kept until the close of business to-day in separate accounts.

ANOTHER DISASTER.

A Flouring Mill Burned—Flour Gas Explosion.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Jan. 1—This morning between midnight and 1 o'clock, the large stone flouring mill at Rockdale, two miles west of this city, was burned to the ground. As no other possible cause can be ascertained for its origin, it is believed that the fire originated from the flour gas in the patent flour department. There was a large quantity of grain and flour in the mill, all of which was destroyed. The mill was valued at $25,000, and was insured for $17,000. This mill was the only building remaining in the little hamlet of Rockdale on the morning of the great flood of July, 1876, in which forty persons were drowned.

ROBBED.

Patrick Carling on a New Year's Spree—What Became of Him.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 1.—Patrick Carling, a farmer residing near Western Union Junction, came to this city yesterday and sold a team of horses. With the proceeds Carling went on a spree. In the course of the carousal he was induced to take a hack-ride, which resulted in its being carried to an out-of-the-way place, knocked down, beaten and robbed. The victim, who is a man of 60 years, suffered severe injury. It is thought several of his ribs were fractured by the ruffians who committed the assault and robbery.

OBITUARY.

Death of Charles T. Sherman, of Cleveland, Ohio.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 1—This morning at 1 o'clock, Judge Charles T. Sherman died at his home on Prospect street, of rheumatism of the heart. Deceased had been in very poor health for months past, but was better during the last few weeks, and his death was thus very sudden. He complained of feeling very sick at midnight, and at one o'clock was dead. He was born in Norwalk, Conn., the 3d of February, 1811, a son of Charles R. Sherman, and the oldest of eleven children. He came with his father to Lancaster, Ohio, when only three months old. His father one of the Supreme Judges of the State. Young Charles graduated at the Ohio University in 1832, studied law with Henry Stoddard at Dayton, Ohio, and in 1832 came to Mansfield, in this State, and began practice. He practiced law in Mansfield up to the time his brother John went to Congress. In 1867 he was appointed by Gov. Todd a Colonel of militia. Near the close of the War he was appointed by Lincoln one of the Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad. In the spring of 1867 he was appointed Judge of the United States District Court at Cleveland, which office he held for six years, or until 1873, when he resigned on account of certain irregularities which came to light in regard to matters outside of the office, tainting his reputation. He has lived constantly in Cleveland since that time. He leaves five children,—Mrs. General Miles, Mrs. Senator Cameron, Mrs. Colgate Hoyt, and Henry S. Sherman, Esq., of Cleveland, and John Sherman, Jr., United States Marshal, of New Mexico. The funeral will take place on Saturday, at which time General W. T. Sherman and wife, Secretary John Sherman and wife, Senator Cameron and wife, General Miles and wife, and many other prominent persons are expected be be present. Judge Willey, who knew him well, said of him to-night: "He was a Judge of considerable ability, a man of genial manners, kind and considerate, and generally liked by the Bar throughout his district."

UNITED TARIFF.

The Leading Western Railways Unite on a Tariff.

MILWAUKEE, January 1, 1879.—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St Paul, Chicago & Northwestern, Minneapolis & St Louis and other railway lines that are likely to come in competition for freight, have united upon a tariff of local rates, which goes into effect at once, and has already been printed for distribution. The union thus effected will have a tendency to harmonize conflicting interests, and render open hostilities out of the question—at least so long as the tariff is lived up to and remains in force.

THE CHINESE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The Chinese legation attracted most attention, and many sought an introduction to the Ambassador and his attaches. The Ministers and Secretaries, except Mr. Bartlett, wore the Chinese dress. It was their first visit on a New Year's occasion, and they were evidently much pleased with the attentions bestowed upon them. All the Judges of the United States Supreme Court, with the exception of Justice Clifford, who is on a visit to Richmond, and the Judges of the Court of Claims, the Southern Claims Commission, and the Courts for the District of Columbia, were present with ladies. Nearly all the members of Congress now in Washington called to pay their respects to the President and Vice President.

CHARLES H. PHILLIPS.

WATERTOWN, Wis., Jan. 1—The Hon. Charles H. Phillips, State Senator-elect of Jefferson county, died suddenly of heart disease at his home at Lake Mills at 10 o'clock this morning.

Petitions are now being circulated asking the Legislature to pass a prohibitory liquor law, or rather for a Prohibitory Constitutional Amendment.

CLINTON.

—The Clinton Baptist Sunday school had anniversary exercises at their church on New Years, consisting of a sleigh ride in the afternoon for the children and a supper in the vestry.

—P H Swift and family will occupy the Fletcher Collyer house.

—Prof M T Park spent a few days with Clinton friends previous to taking possession of the Elkhorn Independent, as editor and one of the proprietors.

—Miss Gertrude Halterman and Miss Nellie Briggs, of Delavan, visited their old school mate Miss Phoebe Bailey one day last week.

—E E Hatch, is in Milwaukee building one of Birdsall's refrigerators. He goes from there to DePere.

—The following message was received by fond parents last week, and as it is their first grand child they are happy.

DEAR PARENTS—"It is a girl."

Yours truly,

EUGENE L. STOWE.

—A M Williams a gentleman of large experience as a grain buyer has rented the old Weaver & Pierce warehouse, and Mr Cronkrite is on the ground to run it.

—Mr Elihu Thomas, of Delavan, is visiting Mr C Sherwood, his brother-in-law, and other friends.

COOKSVILLE.

—Misses Susie and Pleba Porter, attending the Normal School at Whitewater, are at home during the holidays, and on Christmas evening a large party of young people on invitation visited them and a pleasant time was had by all. They return again to school next week.

—Mr. Wm. Leedle & Sons have been building a large addition to their mill, formerly the Rock County Mill of Noah Davenport. The cold weather has hindered some, but it will soon be pushed to completion.

—It is now confidently expected that a church will be built here the coming season. Rev. Mr. May, the pastor here and at Fulton, is helping on with the subscription and he is bound to push it through. Some there are who always have excuses for not helping in such an enterprise, but it must go on nevertheless, for it is a shame to a community with an organized church for so many years with nothing but a school house for Sunday service. We hope to see it pushed to an early completion.

—The Good Templars had a programme adopted for their 17th anniversary, which occurs January 12th; but for this year the exercises will be on Saturday evening, the 11th, at the hall. Mr. Allen, of Mineral Point, G. W. C. T., and T. D. Kanouse, M. W. C. T., will be present to give addresses. Singing, a few recitations, and a social reunion will conclude the evening's entertainment.

ROCK.

—The following officers were elected by Afton Division No. 97, S. of T., at their last regular meeting: W P, Geo S Otis; W A, Clara Moulton; R S, C J Eddy; A R S, Hattie L Blanchard; F S, H D Kimball; Treasurer, R H Kimball; Chaplain, A Kimball; Con, Chas Searls; A C, Etta Griffen; I S, David Lord; O S, H Antisdel.

—Rock River Grange, No 36, held their annual feast at the church basement, in Afton, on Saturday, Dec. 28. Willis Noyes was elected worthy master for the ensuing year, and O D Antisdel, secretary.

—About twenty members of Janesville Division No 2 visited Afton Division S of T, last Friday evening. Such visits cheer us on in the good work.

—The drama, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," will be played under the auspices of Afton Divison, Sons of Temperance, at their hall, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 7. Good musical talent has been secured, and they expect to present it in metropolitan style.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symtom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretive and evacuative functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz, the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

H. A. PATTERSON, P. M.

WISCONSIN.

One of Her Railway Enterprises.

The Chicago & Northwestern Company.

Hon. J. A. Watrous, editor of "The Appeal" of Fond du Lac, has written a very interesting chapter on the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, which is of general interest to all persons who desire to become acquainted with the early railway enterprises of this State. We take pleasure in reproducing a portion of the chapter because it is of special interest to Janesville and Rock county:

Work on the first railroad built in Wisconsin commenced in 1850—between Milwaukee and Waukesha. Work on the second railroad in Wisconsin commenced in 1851, at Fond du Lac. As early as 1849 there was some talk of iron rails for Fond du Lac, but those who had any faith in the attempts were very few in number. The local papers held out no inducement—uttered no word of encouragement; in which respect they differed radically from modern local papers. It is doubtful if there can be found in all the West a local paper whose editor does not frequently, and in glowing colors, call attention to his village or city as a point in need of a railroad, or increased railroad facilities, claiming that it would richly repay the company that would take hold and push the enterprise. Very little was said about such enterprises by Fond du Lac and Northeastern Wisconsin papers when the first faint whispers were heard in 1849. Indeed, the papers only occasionally and briefly mentioned the matter, until within two or three months of the time the work of grading actually commenced, in July, 1851. An examination of the papers of those times developes the fact that they and the people were more deeply interested in plank roads than in railroads. Columns of space were devoted to plank roads in process of construction, and to giving proceedings of meetings called for the purpose of devising ways and means for starting new ones, while a short paragraph sufficed for the railroad enterprise. This seems almost unaccountable to people of the present day, in view of the decayed and almost forgotten plank roads, their short lives and little service, and in view of the incalculable benefits the State, and particularly Northeastern Wisconsin, has derived from the railroads constructed since then.

GROUND BROKEN.

John B. Macy and T. L. Gillet, of Fond du Lac, and A. Hyatt Smith, of Janesville, were leading spirits in the formation of the Rock River Valley Union Railroad Company. Not unlike most men who lead in such undertakings, they met with countless obstacles. After much tribulation and vexation of spirit they succeeded in getting the eminent financier, Robert J. Walker, of Washington, interested in the enterprise. Late in 1850 a contract was let to Bradley & Co., of Vermont, practical railroad builders of large experience, to construct a certain portion of the road. T. F. Strong, Sr., of the contractors, came west in 1850 and looked the route over, returned to his home in Burlington, and early the following year moved to Fond du Lac and at once made arrangements to commence operations. Not until the people of Fond du Lac saw contractor Strong enter the village, followed soon after by picks, spades, shovels, axes and wheelbarrows, did they manifest outward signs of deep interest. Then there was faith; then there was enthusiasm; then there was railroad on the brain and no mistake. July 10th, 1851, was fixed upon for breaking ground, and arrangements were made for celebrating the event in true Western style. People along the proposed line from as far South as Sharon were invited. The State officials were to be present. Members of the bar and officials of the various counties through which the road was to run, were to come. At an early hour, the morning of the 10th, teams began to pour into the village from all directions. Walworth, Rock, Jefferson and Dodge counties sent large delegations. Waupun's delegation came in many conveyances, with flags flying and bands playing. Most of the State officers were present. The starting of the immense procession was announced by the booming of the village cannon. A. Hyatt Smith, the honored President of the R. R. V. U. Railway, headed the procession. Then came the Directors and other officers of the company, and the contrator, followed by the State, village and county officials, the judges, members of the bar from various parts of the State, and the people generally, in large numbers. The oldest inhabitants speak of that memorable Railroad celebrating procession as one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever seen in that part of Wisconsin. Preceded by the bands the procession marched to the spot where work was begun—a few rods north of the passenger depot, and formed a hollow square. The President of the day, ex-Congressman M. C. Darling, opened the ceremonies with a brief but elegantly worded address, and introduced the Hon. A. Hyatt Smith, the President, who was handed the spade carried in the procession by Tim Strong, son of the contractor, and as he cut tough sod and tossed it into the air a shout went up that made the earth tremble. When quiet was restored lawyer Bragg, toast-master, read the regular toasts, as follows:

Walworth County: Though last on the line of the road in Wisconsin may she be first in her contributions for the great enterprise of the State.

Rock County: Like the rock that Moses smote it contains in its bosom a fountain that shall refresh a thirsty people.

Jefferson County: Not unlike the industrious statesman after whom she was christened, she loves freedom and is bound to pursue it with an iron horse.

Dodge County: Her iron ore: The Valley road the magic wand that turns it into gold.

Fond du Lac County: She cannot wait to go east by water.

The toasts were appropriately responded to by parties from the various counties named. Brief speeches were made by Attorney General S. Park Coon, and others. The procession was re-formed and marched back to the village, where it was dismissed.

The after dinner toasts were many and read by Dr. Darling. Only a few of them are given as follows:

The Valley road—Will be to Wisconsin what the Erie Canal is to the Empire State.

A PROJECTORS PROPHECY.

John B. Macy, who had labored for years in behalf of the enterprise, and had given the whole subject much thought, offered a toast that would have done credit to a philosopher, not to say prophet. It is worth re-producing. Here it is:

The Rock River Valley Union Railroad.—It will be the connecting of the great chain of Railroads between the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean. The present generation will see this prediction fulfiled.

Mr. Macy seemed to have looked the future squarely in the face and understand pretty well what was in store. Poor Macy lost his life by the burning of a steamer, on Lake Michigan, in 1854.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ST. NICHOLAS,
Scribner's Illustrated Magazine.
For Girls and Boys.

An Ideal Children's Magazine.

Messrs. SCRIBNER & Co, in 1873, began the publication of ST. NICHOLAS, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge as editor. Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the magazine has won the highest position. It has a monthly circulation of OVER 50,000 COPIES.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American. Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideas of best, because her ideal continually outruns it, and the magazine as swiftly follows after. To-day ST. NICHOLAS stands

ALONE IN THE WORLD OF BOOKS.

The New York Tribune has said of it: "ST. NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for its service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries." The London Literary World says: "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of Scribner's press."

Good Things for 1878-9.

The arrangements for literary and art contributions for the new volume—the sixth—are complete, drawing from already favorite sources, as well as from promising new ones. Mr. Frank R. Stockton's new serial story for boys,

"A JOLLY FELLOWSHIP,"

Will run through the twelve monthly parts,—beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume.—and will be illustrated by James E. Kelly. The story is one of travel and adventure in Florida and the Bahamas. For the girls a continued tale,

"HALF A DOZEN HOUSEKEEPERS"

By Katharine D. Smith, with illustrations by Frederick Dielman, begins in the same number, and a fresh serial by Susan Coolidge, entitled "Eyebright," with plenty of pictures, will be commenced early in the volume. There will also be a continued fairy-tale called

"RUMPTY BUDGET'S TOWER."

Written by Julian Hawthorne, and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks. About the other familiar features of ST. NICHOLAS, the editor preserves a good-humored silence, content, perhaps, to let her five volumes already issued, prophesy concerning the sixth, in respect to short stories, pictures, poems, humor, instructive sketches, and the jingle and "Jack-in-the-Pulpit," the "Very Little Folks" department, and the "Letter-box," and "Riddle-box."

Terms, $3 00 a year; 25 cents a Number.

Subscriptions received by the Publisher of this Paper, and by all Booksellers and Postmasters. Persons wishing to subscribe direct with the publishers should write name, Post-office, County, and State, in full, and send with remittance in check, P. O. money order, or registered letter to SCRIBNER & CO., 743 Broadway, New York.

MILTON.

On Monday evening, December 30th, the Orophilian Lyceum presented their Holiday session. College Chapel was well filled by the patrons and friends of the Lyceum, who were present to enjoy the literary feast that they had reason to believe would be presented. Among those present from abroad we noticed the following non-active members of the Lyceum: Professors Dwight Kinney, of Darlington, J. H. Boyle, of Reedsburg, H. S. Hulse, of East Troy, and Messrs. Brown, of Stoughton, Plantz, of Brooklyn, Gillies, of Union, and others. The President of the Lyceum, Mr. O. E. Larkin, called the audience to order, and after prayer by Rev. Nathan Wardner, D. D., the following programme was presented:

Music—Orchestra, with the following instrumentation: Violins, C F Bingham, and C F Saunders; flute, R H Saunders; cornet, G W Post; guitar, C L Brown; piano, D F Brown. Oration, "Our Moral Power," J W. McGowan. In well-chosen words the speaker welcomed the audience, and tendered them the thanks of the Lyceum for their very liberal patronage. Mr. McGowan is a forcible specker, and possessed of much elocutionary ability, but is apt to pitch his voice above the natural key at the outset, and is therefore unable to hold out to the end of his effort. His oration was a well-written production and exhibited good reasoning powers.

Music—Solo, "Only for One," Mrs H A Smith, Janesville.

Oration—"Abraham Lincoln," M G Stillman.'

This was Mr. Stillman's first appearance before a Milton audience, and he acquitted himself creditably. He is an unassuming speaker and lacking in energy in his delivery, a fault that he can easily overcome in future efforts. His production showed some research and an acquaintance with the life, and an appreciation of the motives, that animated the lamented Lincoln both in his public and private acts.

Oration—"Charles Sumner in politics," F. I. Mack. This gentleman is a polished, graceful speaker and has much oratorical ability. His oration was a well written production, showing careful study, and a high appreciation of the character and talent of the great statesman. He pronounced Sumner to be the model in American politics and in him was the embodiment of moral power. A man of high principle and honest convictions, his great aim in life the overthrow of giant wrong.

Music—solo, "The Maid of Dundee."

Paper—"The Orophilian Standard," D. F. Brown. The editorial was appropriate and well written. The contents of the paper were well arranged, embracing a variety of subjects, but some of the articles were rather too heavy for a society periodical. Mr. Brown's voice was rather weak and it marred his delivery very much, but being his first attempt due allowance should be made for the natural embarrassment under which he would labor.

Music—solo, "Down the Shadowed Lane," Mrs. H. A. Smith.

Address—"Doubt Essential to Success," W P Clarke. This was a carefully prepared paper from the standpoint of what is termed a liberal. Doubt does not mean disbelief. Conclusive evidence only makes true belief, anything else but credulity. Genuine thinkers all doubters. All progress, all advancement, all reform in science, politics and religion originated in doubt. Doubt essential to investigation. Luther a doubter and the Reformation a result. Doubt and belief depend on evidence and reason. His arguments were logical and his production an able one. He is a graceful writer and his delivery was pleasing.

Closing Oration—Individuality" J. C. Gillies. Space will not admit of any extended notice of this production, which was very able in thought and carefully written. Mr. Gillies is a deliberate, impassioned speaker and on this occasion was not well prepared. He should be more enthusiastic in his delivery.

Music, Orchestra—The literary exercises as a whole, were much better in thought and composition than in delivery and we would advise the members of the Lyceum to pay more attention to elocution and the cultivation of elocutionary ability, in the future than they have in the past. The music was good. The selections rendered by Mrs. Smith were well received and in their rendition the charming vocalist gave an exhibition of vocal culture and artistic training, that but few in this country can boast of. The most pleasing number was "The Maid of Dundee." The music furnished by the orchestra was well executed and pleased the audience, so much that an encore was accorded, to which the "Boys" amiably responded.

—The holiday session of the Iduna Lyceum took place on New Year's eve. The chapel was well filled, as it always is when the Idunas present a programme of literary exercises, for their patrons have reason to anticipate an interesting literary entertainment, and are yet to be disappointed on that score. The President of the Lyceum, Miss M. M. McLay, presided, and after an appropriate and feeling prayer by Prof. H. D. Maxson, the following programme was presented:

Music, double mixed quartet, "Come where the Lilies Bloom," Misses Collins, Burdick, Clarke and Plantz, and Messrs. Post, Stillman, Pember and Brown. This beautiful number was well executed.

Oration, "Nothing but Leaves," Libbie A. Steer. Two-thirds fail to accomplish what they plan in life. This is not always due to lack of advantages or surroundings, but to lack of earnest application and industry. We work best in our own spheres. Better be a successful boot-black than a failure in a higher sphere. Education necessary in all the walks of life. Educated farmers are needed as much as educated lawyers and physicians. Slow and sure wins the day against speed and laziness. Miss Steer is an energetic, spirited speaker and her voice is clear and her enunciation distinct. In this, her first appearance, she did herself great credit and made made friends.

Oration, "Public Opinion," Clara T. Clarke.

Public opinion is no modern power but has held sway for ages. It robs unworthy kings of crowns and moulds the action of leaders in church, state, and nation. Public opinion has sent many martyrs to the stake and is responsible for the robbery of the many to enrich the few, too often. Public opinion fickle and the aggregated representation of individual opinion. All individual opinion affects the welfare of the nation for good or ill, hence, the imperative necessity of forming right and just opinions. Miss Clarke is an easy, graceful speaker and has a pleasing voice, but lacks energy in her delivery. She made a very favorable impression on this her first appearance.

Music, piano solo, "Chant D'Bivouac," Miss Mate E. Goodrich. An artistic instrumentation.

German recitation from Schiller's "Maid of Orleans," Anna S. Whitford.

Miss W. was attired in the costume of a German girl and looked the madchen to life. We take pleasure in presenting a brief criticism of the effort from the pen of an able critic, Prof. Lucius Heritage: "Miss Anna Whitford's German declamation—a soliloquy of Joan of Arc, taken from Schiller's Maid of Orleans," was delivered in a manner worthy of great commendation. The German was pronounced with a correctness and purity not easy to acquire. Although few of the audience could understand the language, the rhythem and music of the verse sufficient to hold close attention. The effect of the declamation was increased by Miss Whitforn's appropriate costume."

Oration—"Influence of Christianity on Womanhood"—Effie M. Davis.

In all nations where Christianity has been revealed woman has been respected. By the means of Christianity woman has risen from the lowest degredation to her present high estate. Woman had no active part in the Grecian and Roman civilizations. Womanhood sank to its lowest estate during the dark ages. Mental culture for woman is unknown where the Christian religion has no foothold. With the Reformation came a partial recognition of woman's true sphere. Her present advantages due to the spread and acceptance of the Christian religion and all efforts for her amelioration the outgrowth of that religion. Miss Davis had never before attempted to appear as an orator, and was much embarrassed, but nevertheless acquitted herself very creditably.

Music—Vocal solo, "Solemnly, Softly Cometh the Nightfall," Mate J. Haven. An artistic selection, painstakingly rendered.

Paper—"The New Era."—Anna S. Goodrich, Anna D. Howe.

Miss G. had a brief and acceptable editorial. Her voice is clear and strong, but her reading was too hurried, a fault which experience will no doubt remedy. Miss Howe ennunciated her words distinctly, but rather rapidly, and was a trifle too vigorous at times to suit her hearers. The editors were the youngest persons on the programme and certainly acquitted themselves much better than we anticipated, and are entitled to much credit therefor. The paper was spicy and sparkled with wit and humor and was free from those heavy, labored productions that too often find their way into such productions. The editors showed good judgment and taste in the arrangement and make-up of their paper, and as a Lyceum publication was a success.

Music—Piano solo, "Delta, Kappa, Epsilon Marche," Miss Mate Anderson, of Janesville. In the rendition of this number Miss Anderson showed a delicacy of touch and musical ability rare in one so young.

Biography—"Wm. Cullen Bryant," Myrtie I. Larkin. This production was carefully written and gave the hearers a comprehensive outline of the life and work of the great poet and the place which he holds in the affections of the people of this and other countries. Miss Larkin uses a low tone of voice in her her delivery, and for that reason does not make as favorable an impression as she would were she to cultivate her talent for public speaking.

Oration—"Elements of Personal Power," man is but a floating speck on the Ocean of All. An important element of personal power is integrity. Without personal integrity evil comes of the exercise of that power; with it great good is the result. Knowledge, the second element of power, must be acquired by the experiences of life, as well as from text books and mental culture. Wealth, an element of power. Men are apt to be more eager for it than all else, oft times risking their all for gold. A power for good, hardly to be estimated, if rightly used. Social standing a great element of power and he who is reckless of social standing is apt to be of character. Personal integrity is worth all other elements of personal power and he who has that will be apt to gain the others. Miss Dunn is a very graceful, easy speaker and uses appropriate, unstudied gestures. She has much talent, as he production evidenced, and elocutionary and oratorical ability in a high degree. Her oration was, in composition and delivery, the finest on the programme and on this, her first appearance, Miss Dunn made many new admirers. We predict for her a brilliant future

Music—Double mixed quartete, "Vocal Waltzes." The audience were so much with this selection that an encore was given to which the vocalists responded. The liteary exercises were of a high order and the audience were highly pleased. We congratulate the Iduna's on the grand success which they achieved on this occasion. At the conclusion of the programme many of the audience remained to enjoy a social reunion and watch the New Year in.

THE NEW YORK TIMES:

FOR 1879.

Established 1851.

The position of the foremost Republican newspaper in the United States will be sustained by THE NEW YORK TIMES by the same policy in virtue of which that position has been attained.

THE TIMES will continue to place fidelity to the interests of the Republican Party above the pursuit of personal aims or private ambition, and will steadfastly insist that the usefulness of any party must be measured by the extent of its devotion to the honor and welfare of the country. In the future, as in the past, the attitude of THE TIMES will be that of independence within the Republican Party. The maintenance of the national credit; the purification of the public service; the advocacy of all seasonable projects of fiscal reform; rigid economy in public expenditures; opposition to subsidies and corporate jobbery in all its forms, and the preservation of equal rights to all citizens, North and South, will be the salient points of the policy of THE TIMES.

THE TIMES will continue to be distinguished as an enterprising, accurate, and carefully edited newspaper. The acknowledged excellence and fullness of its correspondence by mail and telegraph, from all parts of the world, will be adequately maintained, and its facilities for collecting domestic and foreign news will be expanded to meet the increasing demands of our time.

In the sphere of literary and artistic criticism, of scientific, social, and general discussion, THE TIMES will address itself, as heretofore, to the appreciation of the educated and intelligent classes of the American people. It will be lively without being sensational, aggressive without being coarse; at all times it will strive to be fearless and independent in the championship of the right. No theories subversive of the principles on which the sacredness of family ties, and the existence of society alike repose will be promulgated in its columns.

THE TIMES rejects all advertisements of lotteries, of quacks and medical pretenders, and of all other agencies by which the insidious poison of vice is disseminated throughout society. It will be in the future, as in the past, a newspaper especially adapted for family reading.

THE WEEKLY TIMES, containing selected editorials on topics of national and general interest from the columns of the daily issue, as well as a concise summary of political, social, and foreign news, besides other features which recommend it to all classes of readers, is a paper admirably fitted to circulate in every portion of the United States. It will be the aim of its conductors to use every means, not only to maintain its well-earned supremacy, but to make its popularity still more decided.

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1879.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Coldest day for three years.

—Next week is the week of prayer.

—Mr. Mercury is getting into the bulb business.

—Next Sunday will be "quarterly meeting day" among the Methodists of this city.

—Jack Frost is taking a good many nips. He ought to have sworn off, yesterday, with the rest of the boys.

—Fred Quinn, of Elgin, telegraphed to his father to-day that he expected ta arrive home this evening. All will gladly welcome him.

—Next week a series of special meetings will commence at the First Methodist church. There will be a prayer meeting every evening except Monday.

—Mrs. Thompson, a widow lady living on Pleasant street died Tuesday night. She is the mother of Frank Thompson, who is employed at the Myers house.

—Michael Welch, who lives a short distanced from the city, celebrated the last day of 1878 by a drunk which caused him to drop $1 and costs into Justice Prichard's till.

—To-night a goodly number of Janesville Odd Fellows will go to Milton to join in an installation to be followed by an oyster supper. We understand that Rev. Jenk Ll. Jones is set down for a speech, too.

—The thermometer at the residence of Mr. R. J. Richardson marked 28 degrees below zero at seven o'clock this morning. The thermometer has done good service for eleven years, and is a reliable instrument.

—The anniversary of All Souls church will be duly observed January 15. There will be a ladies' meeting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and a collation at 6:30 o'clock p. m. The pastor will in the evening give his annual review of the work of the church.

—Mr. A. Peterson, who formerly lived in this city, favors us with a number of copies of the Republican, the Independent and the Times, all published at Fargo, Dakota. They are cleanly, sprightly sheets, and indicate that Fargo is alive and at work.

—There were about eighty or ninety bona fide New Years's callers yesterday who spent the whole day in doing the business up thoroughly. The cards this year were more elegant than ever. The refreshments served by the ladies were abundant, and there was a marked absence of wine.

—The tramps in jail are lonesome. They are few in numbers, and are longing for more companionship, as there are not enough of them to get up a four-handed game. They were sadly disappointed yesterday because they had no extra Christmas dinner. In fact they are nearly heartbroken.

—Dr. Hullihan and his daughter, Miss Maggie, last Monday evening joined the Sons of Temperance. The Doctor has tarried long at the cup, and it will rejoice all that he has joined the cold-water army. May his good determination be so carried out that the New Year will prove a happy one for him.

—The Lecture Committee of the Mutual Improvement Club have invited the pastors of the city churches to lecture in their course this winter. Rev. Mr. MacLean has accepted and announces his subject as "Aber Glaube." Rev. Mr. Sanderson will lecture on "Platitudes." The subjects of others are not yet announced.

—Mr. Orson Smith, a son of Maurice Smith and brother of A. Hyatt Smith, died in Farley, Iowa, last Saturday, and his remains were brought to this city to be interred yesterday afternoon. The young man was formerly an employe in the shoe factory here, and for several months past has been in the employ of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad company.

—Tuesday evening a lamp in Silsbee's commercial college began to blaze up in a queer sort of a way, and some of the occupants of Lappin's block noticing it, started the cry of fire. The bells rung out a lively tune, and the boys turned out their machines, but there was no chance given to put on a stream, the cause of the alarm being speepily suppressed, without using any water.

—Dr. Charles B. Pillsbury, son of Rev. C. D. Pillsbury, formerly of this city, was married in Geneseo, Illinois, to Miss Ada Miller, of that city. Dr. Pillsbury, or "Charlie" as he is familiarly known here, has a large practice in Geneseo, and the new partnership which he has formed will be the occasion of many congratulations and well-wishes. May prosperity now doubly crown him and his.

—M. A. Ott, the harness maker, complains of the way he was used yesterday by two uninvited New Year's callers. They came while he was at dinner, and when they went away a horse blanket went with them. He hurried after them, caused them to be arrested and locked up in jail where they registered as Nicholas Andrews and Christy Andrews, two brothers living near Darien, in Walworth county.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 25 degrees below zero, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 13 degrees below.

THANKS OF THE CARRIERS.

The very liberal treatment which the carrier boys received yesterday at the hands of the patrons of the Gazette has awakened in their hearts a feeling of gratitude, which they take this means of expressing. To one and all who helped to make their New Years a happy one, they extend their sincere and hearty thanks.

CONCERNING THE COURT.

The arguments in the habeas corpus cases of the Indian Ford Water Power Company were concluded on Tuesday afternoon, and their further consideration postponed until January 13, at which time a decision will be rendered.

To-day the calendar is being called and the trial of civil cases will immediately follow.

FOUR SCORE YEARS.

Our greatly esteemed and respected townsman, Deacon Josiah Wright, yesterday reached his eightieth birthday, which rendered the day of double interest to himself and his friends. In the evening he was very much surprised by having a large number of friends gather at his residence to help him celebrate. The occasion was most appropriate for such a gathering, and all participated gladly. Besides the social converse, which made the hours speed lightly, Mrs. Beale read a very appropriate and original poem. Rev. Mr. Sanderson and Rev. Mr. Sawin made a few remarks pertinent to the time and place, after which bountiful refreshments were served. Following this, all joined in singing a number of the old familiar songs which brought back vividly the days and scenes of "Auld Lang Syne," proving one of the happiest features of the evening's enjoyment. A few charades, and further music closed the evening. About fifty persons participated in this celebration but this by no means is a limit of those who join in hoping that Deacon Wright may have more such happy occasions for celebrating.

WATCHING AND PRAYING.

About three hundred attended the watch meeting at the First Methodist church on New Year's eve. The first hour was devoted to a prayer service, and at 9 o'clock Rev. Mr. Sewell preached a sermon from the text: "I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." The speaker urged entire consecration and especially the consecration of the body. At the close of the sermon the prayer service was continued the topic of which was "Consecration." A large number then gave in their testimonies and experiences, and the time was thus well occupied until half-past 11 o'clock, when the Lord's Supper was administered, it being partaken of by about eighty. The congregation then sat in silent prayer as the old year died away and the new one greeted them. The service throughout was an interesting and profitable one. Rev. Mr. Faville, of the Court street church, participated, and many members of that and other churches. Rev. Mr. Stowe, who was to have preached the sermon, was unable to do so on account of illness, but Mr. Sewell atoned for the disappointment thus caused. His discourse was an earnest, thoughtful one, and was eagerly listened to by all.

OAK HILL CEMETERY.

The whole number of burials in this cemetery in the year 1878, was 110. Eighty-seven of the deceased were received from the city of Janesville; six from the town of Janesville; eleven from other places in this State; three from Illinois; two from Michigan; and one from Iowa.

The number buried in January was 11; February, 4; March, 6; April, 6; May, 14; June, 13; July, 2; August, 6; September, 15; October, 12; November 7; December, 14.

Of the deceased eighteen were under one year of age; 12 of one year and under five; 7 of five years and under ten; 6 of ten years and under twenty; 8 of twenty and under thirty; 2 of thirty and under forty: 7 of forty and under fifty; 11 of fifty and under sixty; 13 of sixty and under seventy: 16 of seventy and under eighty; 10 of eighty and under ninety.

31st—Mrs. Betsey Flint, Janesville, 68 years.

OBITUARY.

MRS. MARIA HOWELL.

After a long and painful illness the wife of Mr Edwin Howell passed to her rest on New Years morning. She was a woman of rare excellence, possessing those traits of character which challenge one's admiration, respect and love. Maria Rockwell was born at New Lisbon, Otsego county, New York, February 23d 1817, and had nearly completed her 62d year. She married Mr Elwin Howell when twenty years of age. They removed to Wisconsin in 1857, residing in Racine county about one year. From there they removed to Janesville, where they have since resided. Mrs. Howell united with the Baptist church at the early age of thirteen, and her daily life has testified to her faith in her Saviour. Of her it may be truly said. "She has fought the good fight, she has kept the faith, and henceforth there is for her a crown of life." She leaves a husband, and a daughter, Mrs. George B. Hedges, of Brooklyn, New York. The daughter was at the bedside of her mother during the last part of her illness, ministering tenderly to her wants and going with her to the brink of the river over which all must pass alone.

WISCONSIN PATENTS.

List of patents issued out of the United States Patent Office to citizens of Wisconsin, for the week ending December 17, 1878. Reported for the Gazette by S. A. Hudson, Solicitor of Patents, Janesville:

Masons' pointing tools—K. C. Mackery, Madison.

Plow clevises—I. W. Powers, Portage.

Stove drums—G. Gilson, Port Washington.

Horse power corn planters—A. H. Fessenden, Porter, Rock county.

Saw teeth—I. R. Luce, Stevens Point.

Millstone dressing machines—D. Narracong, Baraboo.

Stock cars—W. C. Whitman and C. C. Schneider, Belmont.

FOOTING THE EIGURES.

The Total Production of the Factories of this City Last Year, and their Pay Rolls.

By a careful summing up of the facts and figures gathered by the Gazette in its annual review of the business of the city as given in last Tuesday's issue, it appears that the manufactories and mills of the city have during the past year produced at least $1,600,000, and the pay rolls of the various factories and mills foot up $240,000. These figures compare favorably with previous years, and compare even more favorably with the showings of other western cities of the size of Janesville.

BAILEY'S BATTING FACTORY.

Among the enterprises which were born during the year is Bailey's cotton batting factory, which commenced operation the latter part of January 1878. In September a new building was erected and new boiler, engine and other machinery procured at a cost of $1,200 or upwards, and Mr. Bailey expects during the coming year to add other machinery so as to nearly double the present capacity. The last year it has produced 1,800 bales of bats, averaging 50 pounds to the bale, and making a total valuation of $9,500. The labor account foots up about $1,500. The enterprise is reaping the success which it so much merits, and the coming year will be one of still greater activity and prosperity.

BURPEE'S BATTING FACTORY.

The bat factory of which Mr. A. P. Burpee is proprietor, manufactured during the year 2,500 bales of batting, containing 50 pounds to the bale. In manufacturing this, he used 145,000 pounds of cotton.

STEVENS' CIGAR AND BO XBUSINESS.

Frank G. Stevens has done a business last year which is worthy of special mention. His cigar factory, and his cigar box factory produced about $25,000 and his pay roll has reached about $6,000. This is an increase of fully twenty-five per cent over the previous year. Mr. Stevens proposes to soon occupy a new two-story building to be erected opposite Doty's mill.

FUNERAL OF JOHN BERRIE.

The funeral services of Mr. John Berrie were held this afternoon. A large number of sympathizing friends gathered at All Souls church, where Rev. Jenk Ll. Jones paid befitting tribute to the memory of the departed one. The Masonic order to which the deceased belonged was well represented, and from its ranks the following served as pall bearers: Dr. G. H. McCausey, Mr. G. K. Colling, Mr. S. Hutchinson, Mr. A. S. Lee, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Winckley. The Janesville Veterans of which the deceased was an honorary member were represented by a regulation firing party, numbering twelve and under the command of Sergeant Charles Brown.

Appropriate opening and closing hymns were sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. A. P. Prichard, Mrs. Charles Church, Judge Prichard and Charles Church, with Miss Wilson at the organ.

At the close of the services at the church, the procession was formed under the direction of the Masonic order, and the services at the grave were in accordance with their beautiful ritual.

KNIGHTLY HONORS.

The Knights of Pythias at their regular meeting Tuesday evening, elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

C. C.—A. E. Morse.
V. C.—W. H. Tousley.
P.—T. T. Croft.
M. E.—C. S. Jackman.
M. F.—B. H Baldwin.
K. R. S.—E. B. Heimstreet.
P. C.—A. W. Baldwin.

Representatives to Grand Lodge—Past Chancellors A. W. Baldwin and H. McElroy.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. L. N. Williamson desires through the columns of the Gazette to express his earnest and sincere thanks to those friends who showed such kindly sympathy on the occasion of the death and burial of his aunt, Mrs. Kendall Flint.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS—It has pleased the Heavenly Master to take from our midst by the hand of death, our highly esteemed sister Emily D., wife of brother, Able Barlow, of Center, Grange No. 35, State of Wisconsin, therefore.

Resolved, That in her death we miss a worthy sister in our order. Though not physically strong, yet by her untiring energy and perseverance, she was enabled to accomplish much for the comfort of her family and for the good of the community. The husband has lost a devoted wife, the children a faithful mother, the Grange an honored member, the community in which she had long resided, a respected citizen and the church of which she was a member an active worker.

Resolved, That to her afflicted family and relatives we extend our sincere and most respectful sympathy in this their deepest bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be inscribed on the records of the Grange, and a copy be furnished the Janesville Gazette and Rock County Recorder for publication.

WM. H. Dean,
MRS. S. W. FISHER,
MRS. A. T. QUIMBY,
Committee.

JOHNSTOWN.

—Christmas evening friends and relatives to the number of about sixty, assembled at the residence of Mr and Mrs E P Keith. the occasion being the fifth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable manner. Many of the company were present at their marriage ceremony five years ago and seemed anxious to congratulate them on so successful a five years' voyage of married life. The presents were very appropriate ond useful Among the articles presented were a sofa, centre-table and easy chair, also one of smaller dimensions, suitable for the one that during the five years had been added to their family. Mr A M Carter made the presentation with a few appropriate remarks, to which Mr Keith responded briefly, thanking the friends for the respect shown them. After partaking of a bountiful repast the company commenced to disperse feeling that they had enjoyed a merry Christmas long to be remembered.

—Mr E L Cary has been spending a few days with friends and relatives in this place. He returns this week to Chicago to resume his studies at the Chicago Medical College.

—Mr O Cogswell is training a nobby little span of mares belonging to Jackman Brothers of Janesville. Under Mr Cogswell's training they will become good steppers.

—Mr Jerand Hall has recently erected a wind mill for the purpose of grinding feed, the tower of which is fifty feet high and the wheel of which is twenty feet in diameter. Mr Hall will soon be prepared to do grinding for those in need.

Mrs. Sarah A. Elliott,

Authoress of "Mrs. Elliott's Housewife," Oxford, N. C. writes: I was among the first that used the "London Hair Color Restorer" in this section, and recommended it to M A & C A Santos, Norfolk, Va., as the most beautiful hair dresser and preserver I had ever seen. I was advised by an eminent physician to use it. Since doing so, it has proved so satisfactory in restoring and beautifying my hair, as well as strengthening my eyesight, that I have recommended it to the druggists here in Oxford, Raleigh, and a great many of my friends, and believe I have from what others say, caused it to have a wide and extended sale, and deservedly so, as it certainly is the most cleanly and effective hair restorer now before the American people. The "London Hair Color Restorer" can be obtained at all the leading druggists at 75 cents a bottle, or $4 for six bottles. jy30deodwly-4

This important work, a collection of the best and brightest gems to be found in the whole field of English poetry, was begun in the fall of 1871, and contains 1245 poems by over 400 authors, English and American.

It has been the aim of the editor to present a comprehensive collection—an ENCYCLOPEDIA—of the poetry of the English language, one that will be a welcome companion at every FIRESIDE. Each poem has been given complete, and great care has been taken to follow the most authentic and approved editions of the respective authors. Nearly all the longer minor poems that have become classic will be found in this volume: among which may be mentioned Milton's L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus, and Lycidas; Goldsmith's Deserted Village, and The Traveller; Coleridge's Christabel, and Rime of the Ancient Mariner; Pope's Rape of the Lock, Keats' Eve of St. Agnes, Campbell's O'Connor's Child, Shelley's Adonais, Mrs Southey's Young Gray Head, Macaulay's Horatius, Aytoun's Edinburgh after Flodden, Drake's Culprit Fay, Thackeray's Chronicle of the Drum, and Mrs Browning's Lady Geraldine's Courtship, while in the shorter poems, Shakespeare is represented by 31 selections, Burns by 23, Scott by 19, Wordsworth by 29, Herrick by 14, Hood by 18, Tennyson by 24, Moore by 24, Coleridge by 13, Byron by 16, Shelley by 18, Longfellow by 15, Whittier by 13, Mrs Browning by 14, Campbell by 13, Southey by 13 and others according to their respective merits.

Here will be found the most important poems by prominent authors, besides other poems of note and popularity, all carefully arranged under headings, according to the subjects, thus enabling the reader to see at once all the pieces of any particular character that he may desire.

The selection has been pronounced, by many of our most prominent literary men, one of the best and most complete ever made. The work is furnished with an alphabetical index of the names of the poems, an index of authors and also one of first lines, thus making the means of reference more thorough than in any other work of the kind. Explanatory and corroborative notes have been appended to the volume, and add greatly to its value.

The book makes a very handsome octavo of 1040 pages, printed from new type on fine paper, is illustrated by fourteen engravings on steel, and is beautifully bound. Both in contents and in manufacture this is one of the finest specimens of bookmaking ever produced in this country.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Dr. V. CLARENCE PRICE
—HAS—
Visited Janesville EIGHTEEN YEARS.

HAS met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all

Chronic Diseases
—OF THE—
THROAT, LUNGS, HEART, STOMACH, LIVER.

Head, nerves, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood affections of the urinary organs, gravel, scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, &c.

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

My practice not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained oy years of experience in the treatment of Chronic diseases exclusively: no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.

DR. V. CLARENCE PRICE

Can be consulted at JANESVILLE, MYERS HOUSE, Saturday and Sunday, the 8th and 9th of February, 1879.
